The Collected Essays and Criticism, Volume 2 Clement Greenberg, 2008-04-09 Clement Greenberg 1909 1994 champion of abstract expressionism and modernism of Pollock Mir and Matisse has been esteemed by many as the greatest art critic of the second half of the twentieth century and possibly the greatest art critic of all time On radio and in print Greenberg was the voice of the new American painting and a central figure in the postwar cultural history of the United States Greenberg first established his reputation writing for the Partisan Review which he joined as an editor in 1940 He became art critic for the Nation in 1942 and was associate editor of Commentary from 1945 until 1957 His seminal essay Avant Garde and Kitsch set the terms for the ongoing debate about the relationship of modern high art to popular culture Though many of his ideas have been challenged Greenberg has influenced generations of critics historians and artists and he remains influential to this day A Study Guide for Ben Okri's "In the Shadow of War" Gale, Cengage Learning, 2005 A Study Guide for Ben Okri's In the Shadow of War excerpted from Gale's acclaimed Short Stories for Students This concise study guide includes plot summary character analysis author biography study questions historical context suggestions for further reading and much more For any literature project trust Short Stories for Students for all of your research needs

South Asian Novelists in English Jaina C. Sanga, 2003-03-30 With the publication of Salman Rushdie's Booker Prize winning novel Midnight's Children in 1981 followed by the unprecedented popularity of his subsequent works the cinematic adaptation of Michael Ondaatje's The English Patient many other best sellers written by South Asian novelists writing in English have gained a tremendous following This reference is a guide to their lives and writings The volume focuses on novelists born in South Asia who have written and continue to write about issues concerning that region Some of the novelists have published widely while others are only beginning their literary careers The volume includes alphabetically arranged entries on more than 50 South Asian novelists Each entry is written by an expert contributor and includes a biography a discussion of major works and themes a summary of the novelist's critical reception and primary and secondary bibliographies Since many of the contributors are personally acquainted with the novelists they are able to offer significant insights The volume closes with a selected bibliography of studies of the South Asian novel in English along with a list of anthologies and periodicals

Translating Others (Volume 2) Theo Hermans, 2014-07-16 Both in the sheer breadth and in the detail of their coverage the essays in these two volumes challenge hegemonic thinking on the subject of translation Engaging throughout with issues of representation in a postmodern and postcolonial world Translating Others investigates the complex processes of projection recognition displacement and othering effected not only by translation practices but also by translation studies as developed in the West At the same time the volumes document the increasing awareness the world is peopled by others who also translate often in ways radically different from and hitherto largely ignored by the modes of translating conceptualized in Western discourses The languages covered in individual contributions include Arabic Bengali

Chinese Hindi Irish Italian Japanese Latin Rajasthani Somali Swahili Tamil Tibetan and Turkish as well as the Europhone literatures of Africa the tongues of medieval Europe and some major languages of Egypt's five thousand year history Neighbouring disciplines invoked include anthropology semiotics museum and folklore studies librarianship and the history of writing systems Contributors to Volume 2 Paul Bandia Red Chan Sukanta Chaudhuri Annmarie Drury Ruth Evans Fabrizio Ferrari Daniel Gallimore Hephzibah Israel John Tszpang Lai Kenneth Liu Szu han Ibrahim Muhawi Martin Orwin Carol O Sullivan Saliha Parker Stephen Quirke and Kate Sturge

Homosexuality in the Work of Gore Vidal Jörg Behrendt, 2002 Since his first novel with a homosexual topic The City and the Pillar appeared in 1948 Gore Vidal has been seen as an enfant terrible of American letters Through his ongoing writing career he has examined homo sexuality in the context of cultural religious and socio political developments so that it is fascinating to revisit his critical sometimes cynical and always wittily presented ideas which were formed at a time when Gay Liberation Gay Literature and Gay Identity were still unheard of and to discover the meaning these ideas still hold for us today

Obumsele on African Literature Isidore Diala, 2019-02-13 This compendium brings together in one volume for the first time Obumsele's highly celebrated work on African literature With the dialectic of cultures as the presiding preoccupation of his work and appraising the place of African literature in the universal scheme of cultural interchange his critical speciality Obumsele espoused a scholarship with a necessarily indispensable comparative dimension as the articles anthologised in this volume as African literature reveal The expertise with which he explores the oeuvres of many Western writers because of the light they shed on the creative endeavours of African writers is offset only by the rigour with which he explores the transformative impact of indigenous African literature on the craft of many distinguished African writers Obumsele's discovery of a tradition of the African novel almost entirely rooted in the poetics of African folklore which began with Mofolo and Plaatje and blossomed in Camara Laye and Ben Okri is a highlight of his incisive scholarship and reverberates through many of the works here The originality of his insights his analytic rigour the catholicity of his tastes and competences and the power and grace of his expression make this volume compelling

Theory of African Literature Chidi Amuta, 2017-06-15 This groundbreaking work first published in 1989 was one of the first to challenge the conventional critical assessment of African literature and remains highly influential today Amuta's key argument is that African literature can be discussed only within the wider framework of the dismantling of colonial rule and Western hegemony in Africa In exploring the possibility of a dialectical alternative critical base he draws upon both classical Marxist aesthetics and the theories of African culture espoused by Fanon Cabral and Ngugi From these explorations Amuta derives a new language of criticism which is then applied to works by modern African writers as diverse as Achebe Ousmane Agostinho Neto and Dennis Brutus Amuta's highly original and innovative approach remains relevant not only for assessing the literature of developing countries but for Marxist and postcolonial theories of literary criticism more generally The author's elegance of argument and clarity of exposition makes this a distinguished and lasting contribution to
