

Marshall & Swift® Valuation Service

A Complete Guide to Commercial Building Costs

As published in 1993, the flagship standard in commercial building cost information, CoreLogic's complete and authoritative source guide for estimating replacement costs and depreciation values of commercial buildings.

Renowned for over 100 years, Marshall & Swift provides the building industry with the M&S Index, one of the most reliable sources of a complete, industry standard throughout the United States. M & S provides more than 100,000 and additional estimates around the world.

The Core Screenshot of Building Cost Data

As a leading source of cost information, Marshall & Swift building cost data covers 85 of 100 major metropolitan areas and over 100,000 building types, including total projectable replacement values.

- Square Foot Methodology: The most commonly used valuation approach (square foot method) for the great majority of buildings by location.
- Regional Methodology: Used to estimate the replacement costs of buildings in areas such as Australia, France, Germany, Ireland, etc.
- Component Cost: Individual priced components such as windows, doors, roofs, and landscaping, etc.

Marshall & Swift provides the building industry with the most data and service available today. The Marshall & Swift building cost information is the gold standard in building valuation.
