Brain Rules for Baby, Updated and Expanded John Medina, 2014-04-22 What is the single most important thing you can do during pregnancy? What does watching TV do to a child's brain? What is the best way to handle temper tantrums? Scientists know. In his New York Times bestseller Brain Rules, Dr. John Medina showed us how our brains really work and why we ought to redesign our workplaces and schools. Now in Brain Rules for Baby, he shares what the latest science says about how to raise smart and happy children from zero to five. This book is destined to revolutionize parenting. Just one of the surprises: The best way to get your children into the college of their choice? Teach them impulse control. Brain Rules for Baby bridges the gap between what scientists know and what parents practice. Through fascinating and funny stories, Medina, a developmental molecular biologist and dad, unravels how a child's brain develops and what you can do to optimize it. You will view your children and how to raise them in a whole new light. You'll learn where nature ends and nurture begins. Why men should do more household chores. What you do when emotions run hot affects how your baby turns out because babies need to feel safe above all. TV is harmful for children under 2. Your child's ability to relate to others predicts her future math performance. Smart and happy are inseparable. Pursuing your child's intellectual success at the expense of his happiness achieves neither. Praising effort is better than praising intelligence. The best predictor of academic performance is not IQ. It's self-control. What you do right now, before pregnancy, during pregnancy, and through the first five years will affect your children for the rest of their lives. Brain Rules for Baby is an indispensable guide. Ladies' Home Journal, 1927 Operation: Holiday

Matchmakers Alexis Stanton, 2020-11-10 Two rival matchmakers meet their matches. Sophie Mattis has earned her title as the best matchmaker in Corazon Grande through hard work and an unbeatable formula for finding her clients' love. Given the village's reputation as the most romantic town in California, that's no small boast. Sure, Sophie's own heart has been broken in the past, but by sticking to her tried and true system, her clients get the love she can't find for herself. Life in her new home would be pretty good, except for laid-back, irritatingly attractive local hero Evan Reid, her rival with a foolproof matchmaking system of his own. When the townspeople approach Sophie and Evan with a huge matchmaking challenge, neither can resist the chance to shine and prove their method is superior. Trouble is, in order to show the value of romance to the town's two resident grumps, Evan and Sophie must bury the hatchet and work together to make magic happen during Corazon Grande's all-important holiday season. As the matchmakers race against the clock in their task, their heated rivalry turns into undeniable chemistry, throwing everything off course. Will old wounds and unexpected new feelings stop them from accepting the greatest gift of all love? Marshmallow Muscles, Banana Brainstorms Karen T. Taha, 1988 Fourteen-year-old Pitt Kowalski's efforts to live up to his family's expectations result in disaster until Pitt discovers and uses his own special talents.
