Liturgy Cycle A 2014:

Theology and Poetry in Early Byzantium Sarah Gador-Whyte, 2017-04-19 Theology and Poetry in Early Byzantium examines the kontakia and thought world of Romanos the Melodist the sixth century hymnographer whose vibrant and engaging compositions had a far reaching influence in the history of Byzantine liturgy His compositions bring biblical narratives to life through dialogue encourage a level of participation unparalleled in homiletics and push the boundaries of liturgical expression of theology This book provides an original analysis of Romanos poetry drawing attention to the coherence of his theology and the performative nature of his rhetoric The main theological themes which emerge encourage the congregation to enact the life of Christ and anticipate the new creation restoration of humanity to God re creation in the incarnation and life of Christ and liturgical participation and transformation in that life By analysing the rhetorical performance of theology in the kontakia the book provides new insights into religious practice in late antiquity

Liturgy in the Twenty-First Century Alcuin Reid, 2016-07-14 Because the Sacred Liturgy is truly the font from which all the Church's power flows we must do everything we can to put the Sacred Liturgy back at the very heart of the relationship between God and man I ask you to continue to work towards achieving the liturgical aims of the Second Vatican Council and to work to continue the liturgical renewal promoted by Pope Benedict XVI especially through the post synodal apostolic exhortation Sacramentum Caritatis and the motu proprio Summorum Pontificum I ask you to be wise like the householder who knows when to bring out of his treasure things both new and old see Mt 13 52 so that the Sacred Liturgy as it is celebrated and lived today may lose nothing of the estimable riches of the Church's liturgical tradition whilst always being open to legitimate development These words of Robert Cardinal Sarah Prefect of the Congregation for Divine Worship underline the liturgy's fundamental role in every aspect of the life and mission of the Church Liturgy in the Twenty First Century makes available the different perspectives on this from leading figures such as Raymond Leo Cardinal Burke Archbishop Salvatore Cordileone Abbot Philip Anderson Father Thomas Kocik Dom Alcuin Reid and Dr Lauren Pristas Considering questions of liturgical catechetics music preaching how young people relate to the liturgy matters of formation and reform etc Liturgy in the Twenty First Century is an essential resource for all clergy and religious and laity involved in liturgical ministry and formation Bringing forth new treasures as well as old its contributors identify and address contemporary challenges and issues facing the task of realising the vision of Cardinal Sarah Cardinal Ratzinger Benedict XVI and the Second Vatican Council

Ave, Domine Iesu Christe Daniele V. Filippi, 2024 The motet cycles known as motetti missales are among the most intriguing repertoires of late fifteenth century polyphony This series features a new critical edition of the six cycles by Loyset Compère Gaspar van Weerbeke and Franchinus Gaffurius included in the Milanese Libroni and of the two anonymous cycles transmitted in the Leopold Codex Munich MS 3154 For the first time this corpus is presented with uniform editorial criteria facilitating the comparison of mensural choices and other compositional strategies Furthermore the introduction of each volume thematizes the peculiar characteristics of each cycle in terms of textual choices use of preexisting material and musical design allowing for a new assessment of the motetti missales that goes beyond the homogenizing stereotypes of earlier literature and accounts for the individual contributions of the various composers The editors insight in this repertoire is the result of two interdisciplinary research projects financed by the Swiss National Fund and carried out at the Schola Cantorum Basiliensis in 2014 21 The anonymous motet cycle Ave Domine Iesu Christe transmitted uniquely in Librone 1 of the Milanese Libroni consists of eight motets for four and five voices on Christological texts the first four each of which begins with the words Ave Domine Iesu Christe take their text from a prayer to Christ popular in contemporary prayer books Despite the anonymous transmission several notable stylistic features of the cycle including use of the technique of split tenors suggest a possible attribution to Loyset Comp re ca 1450 1518 All eight motets bear loco rubrics indicating their placement in the mass liturgy

Salve, mater Salvatoris Franchinus Gaffurius, 2023 The motet cycles known as motetti missales are among the most intriguing repertoires of late fifteenth century polyphony This series features a new critical edition of the six cycles by Loyset Comp re Gaspar van Weerbeke and Franchinus Gaffurius included in the Milanese Libroni and of the two anonymous cycles transmitted in the Leopold Codex Munich MS 3154 For the first time this corpus is presented with uniform editorial criteria facilitating the comparison of mensural choices and other compositional strategies Furthermore the introduction of each volume thematizes the peculiar characteristics of each cycle in terms of textual choices use of preexisting material and musical design allowing for a new assessment of the motetti missales that goes beyond the homogenizing stereotypes of earlier literature and accounts for the individual contributions of the various composers The editors insight in this repertoire is the result of two interdisciplinary research projects financed by the Swiss National Fund and carried out at the Schola Cantorum Basiliensis in 2014 21 Of the six motetti missales cycles in the Milanese Libroni which were copied under the supervision of Franchinus Gaffurius 1451 1522 only the cycle Salve mater Salvatoris was composed by Gaffurius himself Unlike the other five motetti missales cycles in the Libroni Salve mater Salvatoris consists not of eight motets but only four each with two to three internal subsections Also distinct among the motetti missales cycles is Gaffurius s choice of texts which though still on Marian themes are not centones but adaptations of two twelfth century sequences with interpolations from the Litany of Loreto

Ave, mundi domina Gaspar van Weerbeke, 2023 The motet cycles known as motetti missales are among the most intriguing repertoires of late fifteenth century polyphony This series features a new critical edition of the six cycles by Loyset Comp re Gaspar van Weerbeke and Franchinus Gaffurius included in the Milanese Libroni and of the two anonymous cycles transmitted in the Leopold Codex Munich MS 3154 For the first time this corpus is presented with uniform editorial criteria facilitating the comparison of mensural choices and other compositional strategies Furthermore the introduction of each volume thematizes the peculiar characteristics of each cycle in terms of textual choices use of preexisting material and musical design allowing for a new assessment of the motetti missales that goes beyond the homogenizing stereotypes of earlier literature and accounts for the individual contributions of the various composers The editors insight in this repertoire is the result of two interdisciplinary research projects financed by the Swiss National Fund and carried out at the Schola Cantorum Basiliensis in 2014 21 The cycle Ave mundi domina by Gaspar van Weerbeke ca 1452 1517 consists of eight four voice motets on assorted Marian texts All eight motets are preserved in Librone 1 of the Milanese Libroni Gaffurius Codices with two also appearing in Librone 2 Of all the surviving motetti missales cycles Ave mundi domina is the only cycle whose component motets can also be found in sources from outside Milan particularly notable in this regard is its fourth motet Anima mea liquefacta est on a highly expressive text from the Song of Songs which with seven concordant sources is not only the single most transmitted motet within the motetti missales repertory but also in Weerbeke s entire output

Quam pulchra es Gaspar van Weerbeke,2023 The motet cycles known as motetti missales are among the most intriguing repertoires of late fifteenth century polyphony This series features a new critical edition of the six cycles by Loyset Comp re Gaspar van Weerbeke and Franchinus Gaffurius included in the Milanese Libroni and of the two anonymous cycles transmitted in the Leopold Codex Munich MS 3154 For the first time this corpus is presented with uniform editorial criteria facilitating the comparison of mensural choices and other compositional strategies Furthermore the introduction of each volume thematizes the peculiar characteristics of each cycle in terms of textual choices use of preexisting material and musical design allowing for a new assessment of the motetti missales that goes beyond the homogenizing stereotypes of earlier literature and accounts for the individual contributions of the various composers The editors insight in this repertoire is the result of two interdisciplinary research projects financed by the Swiss National Fund and carried out at the Schola Cantorum Basiliensis in 2014 21 The cycle Quam pulchra es by Gaspar van Weerbeke ca 1452 1517 consists of eight four voice motets on centonate Marian texts Among the motetti missales cycles it boasts not only the most concordances within the Milanese Libroni but is also the only one whose motets were copied in Librone 4 the latest of these codices So far none of the motets of this cycle has been found in other contemporaneous sources suggesting a particular connection between this cycle and Milan
