

Graduation Speech – Class of 2015
Saint Xavier High School - May 17, 2015

Graduates:

Welcome to this Day and to the meaning behind the dignity of this ceremony as you join the ranks of Saint Xavier's alumni.

You have been school leaders at an historical time as we concluded the celebration of the school's 150th Anniversary. Reflect for a moment on that history, on those who have gone before you, developing the philosophy, programs and facilities and paving the way for the opportunities you have had and the experiences we have shared. Soon it will be your responsibility to ensure a St. X experience for other students and that such opportunities are there and even better for them.

Then reflect one more time on our theme for the year: Together, we dream, we believe and we achieve. Those who walked the halls, took the classes and were part of the teams and activities before you continued to dream, developing a vision for what St. X has become and achieving in ways that propelled our school forward. And all along the way, they believed faithfully that God would walk with them and provide even more opportunities to learn, know, love and serve.

You have continued the traditions, stretched the vision and walked together in faith in all that we have asked you to do.

Take This Advice Sandra Bark, 2005 Bark compiles the 40 most powerful affecting graduation speeches delivered in the last 10 years by popular speakers such as Toni Morrison Judy Blume Mister Rogers Al Franken Gloria Steinem Jon Stewart and many others Confirmation Hearings on Federal Appointments United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on the Judiciary, 2011 Dangerous Doctrine Robert G. Kaufman, 2016-05-13 Much like Margaret Thatcher and Ronald Reagan President Barack Obama came to office as a politician who emphasized conviction rather than consensus During his 2008 presidential campaign he pledged to transform the role of the United States abroad His ambitious foreign policy goals included a global climate treaty the peaceful withdrawal of American military forces from Iraq and Afghanistan and a new relationship with Iran Throughout Obama's tenure pundits and scholars have offered competing interpretations of his grand strategy while others have maintained that his policies were incoherent or at best ad hoc In Dangerous Doctrine political scientist Robert G Kaufman argues that the forty fourth president has indeed articulated a clear consistent national security policy and has pursued it with remarkable fidelity Yet Kaufman contends that President Obama has imprudently abandoned the muscular internationalism that has marked US foreign policy since the end of World War II Drawing on international relations theory and American diplomatic history Kaufman presents a robust critique of the Obama doctrine as he situates the president's use of power within the traditions of American strategic practice Focusing on the pivotal regions of Europe the Middle East and Asia this provocative study demonstrates how current executive branch leadership threatens America's role as a superpower weakening its ability to spread democracy and counter threats to geopolitical order in increasingly unstable times Kaufman proposes a return to the grand strategy of moral democratic realism as practiced by presidents such as Harry S Truman Ronald Reagan and George W Bush with the hope of reestablishing the United States as the world's dominant power OPTIMISM, RESILIENCE, AUDACITY Robert I.
