Grateful Patient Letter:

British Journal of Dental Science and Prosthetics ,1858 British Journal of Dental Science ,1859 Letters to His Children from an Uncommon Attorney David Roberts,2014-08-22 This memoir was inspired by the author's daughter. He would tell her stories about incidents in his life so she persuaded him to write them down. You must write all this down Dad so they can be read by your grandchildren. And you must get on with it before you die. Some stories are brief half a page others are long twelve pages. It is the sort of book to keep by the bedside and dip into one story at a time. Some stories cover events that occurred when the author was a small boy growing up in England during the war. Some cover incidents while he and his wife were travelling in China Japan France in Canada and in other odd places events that occurred in the neighbourhood in Caulfeild Cove where he and his wife have lived for fifty two years. There are pieces about Haida Gwaii and some about his experiences practising law. The stories range from the funny to the harrowing.

Strong-willed Isla Scott leaves her job as a hospital nurse in Edinburgh to return to her hometown of Edgemoor where her brother Boyd still lives. Hoping to reconnect with him after years apart she divides her time between family and her new position at Dr Lorne's fashionable hydro-a nearby spa that advertises cures through baths and steam. Her important job and her renewed closeness with Boyd convince Isla that all is well for her and for her brother. But their contentment is soon disrupted by the reveries and dramas of romance. Boyd is bowled over by pretty waitress Trina Morris but is she playing games with his affections? Meanwhile the arrival of handsome new doctor Grant Revie causes a stir at the spa. Isla finds herself drawn to him and soon a friendship sparks between them. Could their connection turn into something more? A romantic historical saga perfect for fans of Maggie Ford and Katie Flynn.
