Preliminary considerations

Scope of the publication

- I. This publication is to be read in conjunction with UCP 600 and not in isolation
- II. The practices described in this publication highlight how the articles of UCP 600 are to be interpreted and applied, to the extent that the terms and conditions of the credit, or any amendment thereto, do not expressly modify or exclude an applicable article in UCP 600.

The credit and amendment application, the issuance of the credit and any amendment thereto

- III. The terms and conditions of a credit and any amendment thereto are independent of the underlying sale or other contract even if the credit or amendment expressly refers to that sale or other contract. When agreeing the terms of sale or other contract, the parties thereto should be aware of the ensuing implications for the completion of the credit or the amendment application.
- IV. Many of the problems that arise at the document examination stage could be avoided or resolved by the respective parties through careful attention to detail in the credit or amendment application and issuance of the credit
