Graphic Facilitators Guide:

The Graphic Facilitator's Guide Brandy Agerbeck, 2012 Graphic facilitation is the practice of using words and images to create a conceptual map of a conversation A graphic facilitator is the visual usually silent partner to the traditional verbal facilitator drawing a large scale image at the front of the room in real time Graphic facilitation is both process and product Watching the graphic facilitator create the map as the group speaks is highly experiential and immediate It focuses the group as they work aiding concentration by capturing and organizing their ideas Everyone can watch their ideas take shape

Graphical Facilitation Curie Scott, Steve Hutchinson, 2024-11-29 If a picture is worth a thousand words this book provides an approach to help create professional pictures that productively and powerfully capture conversations and thinking for individual and collective learning Individuals are bombarded by information and organizations managers and teachers often lack a corresponding set of tools to make sense of this complexity resulting in far too many death by bullet point presentations This is that toolkit also offering invitations to readers to extend their thinking past these tools to enable the creation and co creation with teams learners and clients of graphical depictions models and metaphors to help people make sense of their world This accessible book is constructed as a visual reference so readers can quickly pick out the specific tool or strategy they need whether working with individuals and teams to promote self awareness develop emotional intelligence improve communication or articulate vision and strategy This clear and adaptable guide will be a welcome resource for teachers trainers managers and coaches to empower people to learn think and create in a powerful memorable and graphical way

Peer-to-peer Training Facilitator's Guide Michele N. Costanza, 2009 The peer to peer P2P training approach involves small groups of people from similar social groupings who are not professional teachers helping each other to learn The P2P approach has great potential for rapidly identifying emerging lessons learned and integrating them into wide reaching Army training The present research identified the instructional principles and best practices for P2P from academia industry and the military supporting effective P2P training and incorporated them into a Soldier friendly facilitator s guide A formative evaluation was conducted with Soldiers using the guide to prepare and conduct group discussions for a face to face group setting and a distributed group setting where Soldiers were linked via video teleconference One group of Soldiers served as facilitators and used the facilitator s guide to prepare and lead discussions with other Soldiers who served as learners Feedback on the guide was mostly positive with Soldiers indicating that the guide provided an appropriate amount of information and a usable format and tools for structuring and fostering group discussions Ongoing efforts to transition P2P methods into Army training are discussed
