Marque Learning Center Essays:

Collected Essays of Joseph E. Emonds: The syntax of local processes Joseph E. Emonds, 1999 Collected Essays by Joseph E. Emonds: The syntax of local processes Joseph E. Emonds, 1999 Consequences of Contact Miki Makihara, Bambi B. Schieffelin, 2007-09-27 The Pacific is historically an area of enormous linguistic diversity where talk figures as a central component of social life Pacific communities also represent diverse contact zones where between indigenous and introduced institutions and ideas between local actors and outsiders and involving different lingua franca colonial and local language varieties Contact between colonial and post colonial governments religious institutions and indigenous communities has spurred profound social change irrevocably transforming linguistic ideologies and practices Drawing on ethnographic and linguistic analyses this edited volume examines situations of intertwined linguistic and cultural change unfolding in specific Pacific locations in the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries Its overarching concern is with the multiple ways that processes of historical change have shaped and been shaped by linguistic ideologies reflexive sensibilities about languages and language use held by Pacific peoples and other agents of change The essays demonstrate that language and linguistic practices are linked to changing consciousness of self and community through notions of agency morality affect authority and authenticity In times of cultural contact communities often experience language change at an accelerated rate This is particularly so in small scale communities where innovations and continuity routinely depend on the imagination creativity and charisma of fewer individuals The essays in this volume provide evidence of this potential and a record of their voices as they document new types of local actors e g pastors Bible translators teachers political activists spirit mediums and tour guides some of whom introduce innovate legitimate or resist new ideas and ways to express them through language Drawing on and transforming metalinguistic concepts local actors re shape language reproducing and changing the communicative economy In the process they cultivate new cultural conceptions of language for example as a medium for communicating religious knowledge and political authority and for constructing social boundaries and transforming relationships of domination Postmodern Philosophy and Christian Thought Merold Westphal, 1999-11-22 Are postmodern philosophy and Christian thought so diametrically opposed that never the twain shall meet Or are various postmodern philosophies in spite of their secular provenance open to religious appropriation These thirteen lively original essays awaken secular postmodernisms and various modes of Christian thinking from their ideological complacency An open space for passionate dialogue emerges from conversations that powerfully engage both intellectual and religious points of view Ukraine in Histories and Stories Volodymyr Yermolenko, 2020-10-20 This collection of texts by writers historians philosophers political analysts and opinion leaders combines reflections on Ukrainian history and analyses of the present with outlines of conceptual ideas and life stories The authors present a multi faceted image of Ukraine s memory and reality touching upon topics from the Holodomor to Maidan from the Russian aggression to cultural diversity from the depth of the past to the complexity of the present The contributors include Ola Hnatiuk Irena Karpa Haska Shyyan Larysa Denysenko Hanna Shelest Andriy Kulakov Yaroslav Hrytsak Serhii Plokhly Yuri Andrukhovych Andriy Kurkov Andriy Bondar Vakhtang Kebuladze Volodymyr Rafeenko Alim Aliev Leonid Finberg and Andriy Portnov The book was initially published by Internews Ukraine and UkraineWorld with the support of the Ukrainian Cultural Foundation The Oxford Guide to the Atlantic Languages of West Africa Friederike Lüpke,2025-06-17 This volume presents the first book length overview of the Atlantic languages a small family of languages spoken mainly on the Atlantic coast of West Africa Languages in this area have been used in diverse multilingual societies with intense language contact for the whole of their known history and their genealogical relatedness and the impact of language contact on their lexicon and grammar have been widely debated The book is divided into four parts The first provides an introduction to language ecologies in the area and includes two accounts of the genealogical classification of Atlantic languages Chapters in the second part offer grammatical overviews of individual languages including the most important non Atlantic contact languages Casamance Creole and Mandinka while the third part explores Atlantic languages from a typological perspective with chapters that explore formal and semantic aspects of their nominal classification systems nominalization strategies their rich system of verbal extensions and the stem initial consonant mutation that is attested in a subset of languages The final part of the book investigates Atlantic languages in their social environments including the creation of creole identities secret languages Ajami writing practices language acquisition the spread and use of Fula as a lingua franca digital language practices and language ideologies The volume is an essential tool for linguists interested in the languages of West Africa language history and classification patterns of language use in Atlantic societies and typology and language contact more broadly The United States Catalog ,1904
