Mary Kay Gift Guide 2009:

After the Interview in Community Oral History Nancy MacKay, Mary Kay Quinlan, Barbara W Sommer, 2016-06-16
Community projects often falter after the interviews are completed This final book of the five volume Community Oral History Toolkit explains the importance of processing and archiving oral histories and takes the reader through all the steps required for good archiving and for concluding the oral history project so that it is preserved and accessible for future generations The authors give special attention to record keeping systems and repositories and provide several examples from actual projects to ground the information in practical terms Charts checklists and sample forms also help the reader apply concepts to practice Volume 5 finishes with examples of creative ways community projects have used oral histories such as performances exhibitions celebrations websites and more in order to promote history and engage the community

A Companion to the War Film Douglas A. Cunningham, John C. Nelson, 2016-03-28 A Companion to the War Film contains 27 original essays that examine all aspects of the genre from the traditional war film to the new global nature of conflicts and the diverse formats that war stories assume in today's digital culture Includes new works from experienced and emerging scholars that expand the scope of the genre by applying fresh theoretical approaches and archival resources to the study of the war film Moves beyond the limited confines of the combat film to cover home front films international and foreign language films and a range of conflicts and time periods Addresses complex questions of gender race forced internment international terrorism and war protest in films such as Full Metal Jacket Good Kill Grace is Gone Gran Torino The Messenger Snow Falling on Cedars So Proudly We Hail Tae Guk Gi The Brotherhood of War Tender Comrade and Zero Dark Thirty Provides a nuanced vision of war film that brings the genre firmly into the 21st Century and points the way for exciting future scholarship
