I once asked students when I was brand new to a school—if I were an alien from another world, another country, what would I notice about this place; what would I need to know? The place is the USA, the thing is its mass communication...

2004: $1.5 billion spent on political ads
1996: since the Telecommunications Act, rules pertaining to media ownership have almost completely disappeared

As media ownership laws are relaxed and as more money is exchanged between politicians and the news media, how will citizens be informed about the issues that matter most to them and that most affect our daily lives? P. 4

Our goal is to examine media as a central force in shaping our culture and democracy. (p. 5) The ways in which the media fail and serve the public.

Our ultimate goal is media literacy: an informed and critical view of the multiple impacts these institutions have had on community and global life.

Culture: narrowly—art, expressions of goodness, truth, and beauty. Broadly—how people live. (Greenblatt handout)
