Middle East		Morocco	Morocco	Lebanon	Egypt?
Latin America		Guatemala Argentina	Guatemala Colombia	Brazil Colombia	Brazil, Mexico?
South Asia			India Pakistan	India	India, Indonesia?
Africa		Pakistan Rwanda Togo	South Africa Togo	South Africa Nigeria Gabon	Nigeria? South Africa?

<sup>a</sup> The permanent members of the Security Council are the United States, France, the United Kingdom, China, and Russia. The United States, France, and the United Kingdom are also permanent members of the Council's Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific (ESCAP), the Economic and Social Commission for Latin America and the Caribbean (ECLAC), the Economic and Social Commission for Western Asia (ESCWA), and the Economic and Social Commission for Africa (ESCA).

<sup>b</sup> The nonpermanent members of the Security Council are elected by the General Assembly for two-year terms. The members are elected from five regional groups: Africa, Asia and the Pacific, Europe, Latin America and the Caribbean, and Western Europe and other States. The members are elected by a two-round system, with the first round held in the first week of November and the second round held in the second week of November. The members are elected by a majority of two-thirds of the members of the General Assembly.

<sup>c</sup> The possible contenders for new permanent seats are those States that have been identified by the Secretary-General as having a strong claim to a permanent seat on the Security Council. The Secretary-General's report on the reform of the Security Council, published in 2005, identified 15 States as having a strong claim to a permanent seat: Argentina, Australia, Brazil, Canada, China, Colombia, Egypt, India, Indonesia, Japan, Mexico, Pakistan, South Africa, and the United States.

The Secretary-General's report also identified 15 States as having a moderate claim to a permanent seat: Algeria, Azerbaijan, Belgium, Canada, China, Colombia, Egypt, India, Indonesia, Japan, Mexico, Pakistan, South Africa, and the United States. The Secretary-General's report also identified 15 States as having a weak claim to a permanent seat: Algeria, Azerbaijan, Belgium, Canada, China, Colombia, Egypt, India, Indonesia, Japan, Mexico, Pakistan, South Africa, and the United States.

The Final Frontier Joel R. Campbell, Gigi Gokcek, 2019-03-08 The proposed book uses the Star Trek television movie and Star Wars movie series to explain key international relations IR concepts and theories It begins with an overview of the importance of science fiction in literature and film television It then presents the development of the Star Trek and Star Wars franchises and discusses how their progression through time has illustrated key IR theories and concepts As a bonus it compares the two franchises to another recent science fiction franchise used to teach IR Battlestar Galactica

Global Politics Roni Kay M. O'Dell, Sasha Breger Bush, 2020-12-30 Global Politics A Toolkit for Learners is an innovative and exciting new learner centered approach to the study of international relations Leveraging decades of in class teaching and learning experiences authors Roni Kay M O Dell and Sasha Breger Bush have developed evidence based teaching and learning practices which support a scaffolded skills oriented approach Each chapter introduces historical documents from key political events important concepts and the techniques learners need to independently and actively engage with primary sources Readers are encouraged to develop a personal connection with global issues to consider matters of justice freedom and equality and to think critically about possibilities for social transformation in the global arena

A Chinese Theory of International Law Zhipeng He, Lu Sun, 2020-03-14 This book analyzes China's attitude to international law based on historical experiences and documents and provides an explanation of China's approaches to international legal issues It also establishes several elements for a possible framework of Chinese theory on international law The book offers researchers university students and practitioners valuable insights into how China views international law and why it does so in the way it does

International Relations Joshua S. Goldstein, Jon C. Pevehouse, 2008 Thoroughly updated to cover world affairs to 2008 International Relations offers the most current and comprehensive coverage of international relations theory international security international political economy and global issues From war trade and development to terrorism human rights and the environment this introductory survey examines the relations between states the international system and transnational actors and influences With the broadest discussion of theoretical perspectives the most current coverage of international events and the strongest emphasis on critical thinking International Relations includes all the tools students need to engage the discipline's concepts and to understand what is happening in the world today Joshua Goldstein and Jon Pevehouse's lively writing abundant visuals and seamless integration of learning technology make this text a favorite of instructors and students alike

Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 2004

Theories of International Relations Siegfried Schieder, Manuela Spindler, 2014-05-23 This book is a comprehensive guide to theories of International Relations IR Given the limitations of a paradigm based approach it sheds light on eighteen theories and new theoretical perspectives in IR by examining the work of key reference theorists The chapters are all written to a common template The introductory section provides readers with a basic understanding of the theory's genesis by locating it within an intellectual tradition paying particular attention to the historical and political context The second section elaborates on the theory as formulated by the selected reference theorist After this account of the theory's core elements the third section turns to theoretical variations examining conceptual subdivisions and overlaps further developments and internal critique The fourth section scrutinizes the main criticisms emanating from other theoretical perspectives and highlights points of contact with recent research in IR The fifth and final section consists of a bibliography carefully compiled to aid students further learning Encompassing a broad range of mainstream traditional theories as well as emerging and critical perspectives this is an original and ground breaking textbook for students of International Relations The German edition of the book won the Geisteswissenschaften International Prize collectively awarded by the Fritz Thyssen Foundation the German Federal Foreign Office and the German Publishers Booksellers Association
