Students use the book to create a circle story. They will read the book to themselves and then to their partners. They will then create a story map for the story. After they read, create a story map for themselves, using the book to read along whenever they want to. They begin the process of using a story map to discuss the story elements. Discuss with them the elements of "setting." Explain to themselves the word setting means it is the place and time when the story happens. They will write down whenever they tell you for the setting. Repeat the process with "characters." Then explain to the students that their book is about a greedy triangle. "How does the greedy triangle change shape?"

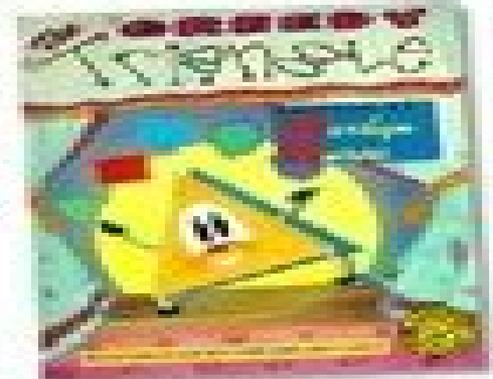

When they discuss each event in the book, and write down their responses. Finally, give the students the opportunity to come up with their own story.
