Time Briton Hadden, Henry R. Luce, 1955 Shooting in the Wild Chris Palmer, 2010-10 Longtime producer Palmer provides an in depth look at wild animals on film covering the history of wildlife documentaries safety issues and the never ending pressure to obtain the money shot Marlin Perkins Jacques Cousteau Steve Irwin Timothy Treadwell and many other familiar names are discussed along with their work accidents and in some cases untimely deaths Palmer is highly critical of Irwin and offers fascinating revelations about game farms used by exploitative filmmakers and photographers looking for easy shots and willing to use caged animals to obtain them He also considers the subliminal messages of many wildlife films considering everything from Shark Week to Happy Feet and how they manipulate audiences toward preset conclusions about animal behavior In all this is an engaging and exceedingly timely look at a form of entertainment the public has long taken for granted and which as Palmer points out really needs a fresh and careful reconsideration School Library Journal, 2002 The Saturday Evening Post, 1926 SCC Library has 1974 89 plus scattered issues Our Vanishing Wild Life William Temple Hornaday, 1913 William Temple Hornaday was the Director of the New York Zoological Society and the nation s leading advocate of wildlife conservation in this era This unsparing manifesto was written to accompany Hornaday s launching of the Permanent Wildlife Protection Fund it is thus in the words of the historian Stephen Fox both a campaign tract and one of the first books wholly devoted to endangered wild animals John Muir and His Legacy The American

Conservation Movement Boston Little Brown and Company 1981 p 149 It is also a landmark of conservation history which had a profound effect on the thought of Aldo Leopold among others The book surveys the history and causes of wildlife destruction in America and elsewhere and sets forth a lengthy program to ensure the protection of remaining wildlife for the future often in militant and moralistic terms The work also throws light on some of the complexities inherent in the conservation movement at this time for example Hornaday accepts the classification of certain bird and mammalian predators as noxious or vermin and appropriate for destruction pp 77 81 there is no criticism here of the massive campaign for the extermination of wolves and coyotes being sponsored at the time by the Bureau of Biological Survey On a more general level Hornaday s fulminations against Italian immigrants as incorrigible bird killers suggest a connection between nativism and conservationism while his excoriations of market hunters set forth a deeply rooted class bias shared by many leading conservationists
