March 2013 2014 Geography Question Paper:

Yearbook of International Organizations 2013-2014 (Volume 3) Union of International Associations, 2013-08-09 The Yearbook of International Organizations provides the most extensive coverage of non profit international organizations currently available Detailed profiles of international non governmental and intergovernmental organizations IGO collected and documented by the Union of International Associations can be found here In addition to the history aims and activities of international organizations with their events publications and contact details the volumes of the Yearbook include networks between associations biographies of key people involved and extensive statistical data Volume 3 allows readers to locate organizations by subjects or by fields of activity and specialization and includes an index to Volumes 1 through 3 Trees on Mars Hal Niedzviecki, 2015-10-20 The future is big right now for perhaps the first time our society is more focused on what is going to happen in the future than what is happening right now In Trees on Mars Our Obsession with the Future cultural critic and indie entrepreneur Hal Niedzviecki asks how and when we started believing we could and should create the future What is it like to live in a society utterly focused on what is going to happen next Through visits to colleges corporations tech conferences factories and more Niedzviecki traces the story of how owning the future has become irresistible to us In deep conversation with both the beneficiaries and victims of our relentless obsession with the future Niedzviecki asks crucial questions Where are we actually heading How will we get there And whom may we be leaving behind Arts in Place Cara Courage, 2017-02-03 This interdisciplinary book explores the role of art in placemaking in urban environments analysing how artists and communities use arts to improve their quality of life It explores the concept of social practice placemaking where artists and community members are seen as equal experts in the process Drawing on examples of local level projects from the USA and Europe the book explores the impact of these projects on the people involved on their relationship to the place around them and on city policy and planning practice Case studies include Art Tunnel Smithfield Dublin an outdoor art gallery and community space in an impoverished area of the city The Drawing Shed London a contemporary arts practice operating in housing estates and parks in Walthamstow and Big Car Indianapolis an arts organisation operating across the whole of this Midwest city This book offers a timely contribution bridging the gap between cultural studies and placemaking It will be of interest to scholars students and practitioners working in geography urban studies architecture planning sociology cultural studies and the arts Coloniality, Ontology, and the Question of the Posthuman Mark Jackson, 2017-11-22 This book brings together emerging insights from across the humanities and social sciences to highlight how postcolonial studies are being transformed by increasingly influential and radical approaches to nature matter subjectivity human agency and politics These include decolonial studies political ontology political ecology indigeneity and posthumanisms The book examines how postcolonial perspectives demand of posthumanisms and their often ontological discourses that they reflexively situate their own challenges within the many long histories of decolonised practice Just as postcolonial research needs to critically engage with radical transitions suggested by the ontological turn and its related posthumanist developments so too do posthumanisms need to decolonise their conceptual and analytic lenses The chapters interdisciplinary analyses are developed through global critical and empirical cases that include city spaces and urbanisms in the Global North and South food politics and colonial land use cultural and cosmic representation in film theatre and poetry nation building the Anthropocene materiality the void pluriversality and indigenous world views Theoretically and conceptually rich the book proposes new trajectories through which postcolonial and posthuman scholarships can learn from one another and so critically advance

Local and Regional Development Andy Pike, Andrés Rodríguez-Pose, John Tomaney, 2016-07-15 Actors and institutions in localities and regions across the world are seeking prosperity and well being amidst tumultuous and disruptive shifts and transitions generated by an increasingly globalised knowledge intensive capitalism global financial instability volatility and crisis concerns about economic social and ecological sustainability climate change and resource shortages new multi actor and multi level systems of government and governance and a re ordering of the international political economy state austerity and retrenchment and new and reformed approaches to intervention policy and institutions for local and regional development Local and Regional Development provides an accessible critical and integrated examination of local and regional development theory institutions and policy in this changing context Amidst its rising importance the book addresses the fundamental issues of what kind of local and regional development and for whom its purposes principles and values frameworks of understanding approaches and interventions and integrated approaches to local and regional development throughout the world The approach provides a theoretically informed critical analysis of contemporary local and regional development in an international and multi disciplinary context grounded in concrete empirical analysis from experiences in the global North and South It concludes by identifying what might constitute holistic inclusive progressive and sustainable local and regional development and reflecting upon its limits and political renewal

Controlling Immigration James F. Hollifield, Philip L. Martin, Pia M. Orrenius, François Héran, 2022-09-27 The fourth edition of this classic work provides a systematic comparative assessment of the efforts of major immigrant receiving countries and the European Union to manage migration paying particular attention to the dilemmas of immigration control and immigrant integration Retaining its comprehensive coverage of nations built by immigrants the so called settler societies of the United States Canada Australia and New Zealand the new edition explores how former imperial powers France Britain and the Netherlands struggle to cope with the legacies of colonialism how social democracies like Germany and the Scandinavian countries balance the costs and benefits of migration while maintaining strong welfare states and how more recent countries of immigration in Southern Europe Italy Spain and Greece cope with new found diversity and the pressures of border control in a highly integrated European Union The fourth edition offers up to date analysis of the comparative politics of immigration and citizenship the rise of reactive populism and a new nativism and the challenge of managing migration and mobility in an age of pandemic exploring how countries cope with a surge in asylum seeking and the struggle to integrate large and culturally diverse foreign populations

Accomplishing Climate Governance Harriet Bulkeley, 2015-09-25 This book provides a new approach to thinking about the politics and geographies of climate governance It argues that in order to understand the nature and potential of the range of new responses to climate change emerging at multiple scales we need to examine how governance is accomplished how it is undertaken practised and contested Through a range of case studies drawn from communities corporations and local government the book examines how climate change comes to be governed and made to matter as an issue with which diverse publics should be concerned It concludes that rather than seeking the solution to climate change once and for all we need to engage with the ways in which we can channel our intentions to ameliorate the climate problem to more progressive ends The book will be of interest to researchers advanced students and policy makers across the social sciences

Rethinking Youth Citizenship After the Age of Entitlement Lucas Walsh, Rosalyn Black, 2018-03-22 Rethinking Youth Citizenship After the Age of Entitlement provides a primer for exploring hard questions about how young people understand experience and enact their citizenship in uncertain times and about their senses of membership and belonging It examines how familiar modes of exclusion are compounded by punitive youth policies in ways that are concealed by neoliberal discourses It considers the role of key institutions in constructing young people's citizenship and looks at the ways in which some young people are opting out of established enactments of citizenship while creating new ones Critically reflecting on recent scholarly interest in the geographical relational affective and temporal dimensions of young people's experiences of citizenship it also reinvigorates the discussion about citizenship rights and entitlements and what these might mean for young people The book draws on global research and theories of citizenship but has a particular focus on Australia which provides a unique example of a country that has fared well economically yet is mimicking the austerity measures of the United Kingdom and Europe It concludes with an argument for a rethinking of citizenship which recognises young people's rights as citizens and the ways in which these interact with their lived experience at a time that has been characterised as the end of the age of entitlement

From Revolution to Chaos in Haiti (1804-2019) Rhodner J Orisma, 2020-01-13 Haiti is a failing state The country is still unable to provide basic needs such as employment food housing healthcare and education to a majority of its inhabitants in over two centuries after its revolution and Independence of 1804 Relatively incompetent both the nation's government and its opposition ignore moral politics and instead focus on corruption and fighting each other Though free from French rule the country remains tied to its slave past and violent history It seems like a socioeconomic and urban consensus cannot be achieved in order to carry out sustainable solutions for the people This book From Revolution to Chaos in Haiti 1804-2019 Urban Problems and Redevelopment Strategies is an attempt to analyze this situation from a historical perspective First the Haitian Revolution of 1804 is displayed to show the violent and bloody struggles of outstanding leaders and warriors against colonial powers for the making of a great political and independent nation Second Haiti s decline is analyzed starting from the assassination of its first leader Jean Jacques Dessalines in 1806 to the country s bottom rank in the global stratification during the 2010 s along with the impact of the catastrophic 2010 earthquake The main factors noted within this decline are linguistic agricultural urban and HIV AIDS TB healthcare issues and undercapitalization along with ideological confusions capitalism neoliberalism socialism social democracy and political instability

Redefining Genocide Doctor Damien Short,2016-06-15 In this highly controversial and original work Damien Short systematically rethinks how genocide is and should be defined Rather than focusing solely on a narrow conception of genocide as direct mass killing through close empirical analysis of a number of under discussed case studies including Palestine Sri Lanka Australia and Alberta Canada the book reveals the key role played by settler colonialism capitalism finite resources and the ecological crisis in driving genocidal social death on a global scale
