The primary function of the courts within any society is the resolution of disputes. At the heart of the judicial system lies the premise that self help by force is unacceptable so that parties who are unable to solve their dispute amicably may bring it before the court for an impartial settlement. This basic scheme of dispute resolution mechanism promotes good government and an orderly society, and ultimately, by resolving disputes and redressing violation of rights, the courts serve to develop new law and enforce existing laws.

In addition to the resolution of disputes, the courts also help to shape the society by pronouncing innovative and creative judgements. The courts perform an important function of educating and reprimanding the parties before the court, and on occasions, the general public and the social and political institutions. The impact of the system of the court extends beyond the immediate parties to the cases. The very knowledge of the existence of the judicial system influences the conduct of the members of the society in business as well as personal
