

Henry Minton

1870 - 1946

Henry Minton was an African American doctor and a co-founder of the Sigma Pi Phi Fraternity. He spent a year studying law at the University of Pennsylvania, then three years studying pharmacy at the Philadelphia

College of Pharmacy. He opened a drugstore in 1897, the first to be operated by an African American. In 1906, he got his M.D. degree and became the first pharmacist at the Douglass Hospital, where he later served on its board of directors. In 1920 Minton succeeded Algernon Jackson as the superintendent of the Mercy Hospital of Philadelphia, a post he held for the next twenty-four years. Minton was also on the staff of the Henry Phipps Institute, which was famous for its treatment of tuberculosis.

Sigma Pi Phi Fraternity

The first Greek-letter fraternity founded by African American men was established in 1904 and named the Sigma Pi Phi Fraternity.

In 1908 chapter representatives from Chicago, Baltimore and other cities met in Philadelphia and established the Grand Boule to provide central leadership. The fraternity believed in the absolute equality of standing of its members, therefore anyone who was eligible to be a member was deemed qualified for leadership. Officers were henceforth selected by lot, a tradition that lasted until 1970. The fraternity was established so that black learned and professional men could have an organization not based on brains alone, but also congeniality, culture and good fellowship. The founders devotion to equality and mutual respect stemmed from ancient Greece and traditions of leadership that existed among free men.
