 Exclusively available on IvyPanda

Introduction

This paper would discuss and evaluate the causes of the origin and evolution of the world-famous French Revolution. It would cover all aspects and perspectives of the French Revolution.

Revolution - the term means to rebel or overthrow a government or a social system. It results in a complete change from the existing situation. Generally, a revolution happens when there is widespread misery, unhappiness, and dissatisfaction among the mass of common people in any country. People may be unhappy because their basic needs are not been taken care of by their ruler or government. History shows that there has been some type of revolution almost all over the world at various times. Europe has also had its share of revolution. The famous uprising in France in the 18th century resulted in what is now known as the French Revolution.

Main body

The French revolution, in this part of the world at least, was the inspiration for all subsequent uprisings and revolts throughout Europe in the nineteenth century and its ideals, in part, are visible in many of the twentieth centuries' wars as well. Before talking about the reasons why the revolution occurred, it is appropriate to place it in its context in European history. The French revolution has traditionally been viewed as a major dividing line in modern Europe's history, an event which has destroyed that complex of political, social, legal, and juridical institutions known as the old regime and inaugurated a new era characterized by a greater emphasis upon individual rights, the spread of a representative government and the emergence of a new kind of loyalty to the nation.

The causes of the French Revolution have been stated by many historians and authors, all of whom have given their expert views. The main causes of the revolution are understood as food and financial crises and social inequality. Some authors say that the American Revolution and the Enlightenment had a lot of influence on the French Revolution. Louis XVI was the king of France in the year 1789 when the nation had
