Details of Renaissance Paintings (Sandro Botticelli, Birth of Venus, 1482) (1984) by Andy Warhol
acrylic and silkscreen ink on linen

Viewed at Arkansas Arts Center Andy Warhol exhibition (October 28, 2008)

A Modern Venus

Andy Warhol's piece titled Details of Renaissance Paintings (Sandro Botticelli, Birth of Venus, 1482) represents the face of the goddess Venus. This piece was made in 1984 as a depiction of the face of Venus from the earlier painting The Birth of Venus by Sandro Botticelli that was completed in 1482. The piece's present location is the Arkansas Arts Center, and its original location is the Andy Warhol Museum in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. The piece is acrylic and silkscreen ink on linen, and it can only be seen from one side because it is hanging on the wall.

The work is a colorful representation of the face of the goddess Venus as depicted earlier in The Birth of Venus by Botticelli. However, Warhol uses more colors in his work. Venus's face and neck are pink while her hair is black, red, orange, and yellow. In contrast, the background is a solid light blue color. In Details of Renaissance Paintings, Venus's face and hair are emphasized and the dominant elements are her hair because of the warm colors and her gaze.

Warhol uses implied lines to direct viewers' eyes around the artwork. The implied lines are the strands of Venus's hair that direct viewers' eyes to the right bottom, middle, and top because the strands are going in each of these directions. One bundle of
