

RECOUNT - YEAR -7 AGE 13

TITLES: Recount titles are straightforward. Their job is to simply communicate to the reader what the recount is about.

TIME: A formal tone is appropriate for a historical recount. As the purpose is primarily to inform the reader objectively, the content of this text type is most effectively delivered in a no-nonsense, formal style.

CAUSAL CONNECTIVES: In a historical recount, causal connectives such as this can be used to show the relationship between different events.

TIME CONNECTIVES: Temporal words and phrases are used throughout recounts to help organise events into chronological order. Their use makes the events easier for the reader to follow.

EVIDENCE: As historical recounts are intended to be factual in nature, it's important to support statements with evidence where possible. Here, the evidence is vague. The quality of this evidence could be improved with the use of a direct quotation from one of these scholars, for example.

The Bubonic Plague and Pope Gregory IX

Cats were once the most effective form of vermin control across European cities. Indeed, in the 13th century, Europe's large cat population had helped slow the spread of many deadly diseases.

Unfortunately however, the leader of the Roman Catholic Church at the time, Pope Gregory IX, did not like cats at all. In fact, on 10th June 1233, he issued a papal bull known as Vix in Roma that declared that cats were actually an incarnation of Satan and ordered their elimination.

As a result, throughout the next hundred or so years, cats were culled in massive numbers. Annual festivals were even held dedicated to the destruction of their destruction.

Then, in the middle of the 14th-century, a deadly plague began to spread from Asia. By the time the Black Plague hit Europe, cat numbers had significantly declined and, due to the increased rat population, the plague spread quickly.

The plague was highly contagious and was spread in a variety of ways. In its most deadly form, the bubonic plague was transmitted primarily by fleas that lived on rats. The most effective deterrent against rats was, of course, cats.

In the short space of just seven years, from 1346 to 1353, the Black Plague killed between 75 and 200 million people as it spread from Asia all the way through to north-western Europe.

Some scholars of this period in European history believe that the massive decline in cat numbers due to Pope Gregory IX's mandate contributed to the overwhelming devastation caused by the spread of the plague.

Further evidence that, in human history, any action can have unpredictable and unwanted consequences.

OPENING: The first paragraph of the recount orients the reader. It informs the reader when the events took place, where they took place, and introduces elements of the subject of the recount.

THIRD-PERSON PERSPECTIVE: Historical recounts are generally written from a third-person perspective using pronouns such as he, she, and it, names, and general nouns such as 'cats, people, etc.

PAST TENSE VERBS: As the events in a historical recount have already happened, the past tense is widely used.

PASSIVE VOICE: The passive voice is commonly used throughout historical recounts as it helps maintain the focus on events rather than the 'doer' of those events. This helps to give a distance from the events that can encourage impartiality and objectivity.

SPECIFIC DETAIL: Include specific details such as dates helps make the historical recount more credible. For example, rather than write "The leader of the Roman Catholic Church at the time...", we might write, "In 1233, Pope Gregory IX..." It is always better to be specific rather than vague.

REFLECTIVE STATEMENT: For more advanced students, the student can use the final paragraph to provide a wider historical context for the event.
