

Travel with Mom

Interview/Profile Essay by Jessica Smith

My mother is a strong, hard-working, intelligent woman, who is not afraid to tell what she is really thinking. She is average height with blond hair and green eyes. When I was little she used to read a story to me every night when she tucked me into bed. She would get her reading glasses, and we would get in bed and snuggle under the covers while she read. Sometimes I would ask for a made up story or a story about her when she was younger. I always cherished these times with her. My mother worked all day, came home, and made dinner; then she got up and did it again the next day.

I asked her, "Which job was the most interesting and why?"

She was quiet for several minutes and then said, "I used to travel the United States and Canada installing computers in hotels and training the hotel staff on the computer systems. This job provided the opportunity to travel, see new places, meet new people; and I got paid for it at the same time." This was a great opportunity for a farm girl from Northwest Kansas. Who would have thought that a girl from Bird City who had not taken a computer class and a management class or traveled more than 200 miles from home would be doing that for a living.

Then she went on to tell me several stories about her experiences while traveling. One of them was being able to watch the Macy's Day Thanksgiving Day Parade from her hotel room while in her pajamas. "It seemed like you could open the window and be able to touch the balloons." She was sent to this hotel to help co-workers with a difficult installation. "My job was to get the hardware working. I was locked in a little room with a white-haired, German IBM rep
