Hugs, Hope and Peanut Butter Marsha Mott Jordan, 2006 If you are a scourge on this is what you. Anyone who has faced tough times and disappointment be encouraged by the use of lifting and often humorous essays about everything from husbands, wild bears, and a day in the emergency room to aging in laws and living with chronic illness. What essays illustrated by critically ill children, the author draws upon her own experiences of dealing with chronic pain and depression to mix the series with a lighthearted and bring a message of hope to the hurting. Like a visit with a friend who always makes you laugh, this book will lift your spirits, strengthen your faith, and warm your heart. Publisher

Recalls are Coming, 1999-10 Parents, 2001 Architecture, Ethics, and the Personhood of Place Gregory Caicco, 2007 Architecture and environmental design are among the last professional fields to develop a sustained and nuanced discussion concerning ethics. Hemmed in by politics and powerful clients on one side and the often unscrupulous practices of the construction industry on the other, environmental designers have been traditionally reluctant to address ethical issues head-on. And yet the rapid urbanization of the world's population continues to swell into new megacities, each less healthy, welcoming, secure, or environmentally sustainable than the next. Green, carbon-reduced, and sustainable building practices are important ways architects have recently responded to the symptoms of the crisis, but are these efforts really addressing the core issues? Taking the Dine Navajo Hogan Song, a song used to protect and nourish the personhood of newly constructed dwellings as their inspiration, the architects, philosophers, poets, and other contemporary scholars contributing to this volume demonstrate that a deeper, more radical change in our relationship to the built world needs to occur. While offering a careful critique of modernist, corporate, or techno-enthralled design practices, these essays investigate an alternative relational ecology whose wisdom draws from ancient and often marginalized voices, if not the whisperings of the earth itself. Contributors include Richard Kearney, Alberto Perez Gomez, Juhani Pallasmaa, Karsten Harries, Edward Casey, Susan Stewart, David Abram, Stacy Alaimo, Jace and Laura Weaver, Philip Sheldrake, and Sebnem Yucel Young.
