How many Kinds of DELF Tests?

The DELF A1 exam is a standardised test used by universities in France to assess the ability of foreign students to use French. The test consists of three sections: listening, reading, and speaking.

There are four types of DELF exams:

- Oral Self-Assessment (ASA): This is the most common format for the DELF A1 exam. Students listen to a recording of a dialogue and then answer questions about what they have heard.
- multiple choice questions: This type of question presents learners with a set of choices and asks them which one is best suited for the context.
- Speaking tasks: These tests present students with real life scenarios and ask them to respond in French.
- Reading tasks: These tests present readers with short stories or poems and ask them to analyse the text, identify themes, and make connections between different elements.
