

"Harrison Bergeron"
by
Kurt Vonnegut, Jr.

1. Why does the government handicap George but not Hazel?
Hazel has average intelligence and is not a threat.
2. Why is the government looking for Harrison?
He escaped from jail, where he was held on suspicion of plotting to overthrow the government.
3. What does the handicapper general do to Harrison?
She shoots and kills him.
4. Why don't Harrison's parents respond with more feeling to what they have seen?
Hazel's lack of intelligence and George's handicap keep them from remembering or focusing on it.
5. Summarize the main conflict in "Harrison Bergeron." How is this conflict resolved? How does the resolution help to make the story successful?
Harrison Bergeron is in conflict with the government. He is an extraordinary person, and the government demands that he be equal to everybody else. He insists on being who he is and is killed by the government. The story's dramatic resolution warns readers what could happen in a society if freedom and diversity are not valued.
6. Recall that the climax, or turning point, is the high point of interest and tension in a story. What is the climax of this story?
The climax is the scene in which Harrison and the ballerina are suspended in mid-air and are then shot and killed for their actions. (lines 180-191)
7. What overall conclusions can you draw about the society depicted in the story? Consider how people must function and what has become "normal."
The society limits any potential for greatness. It is repressive, discriminatory, and dangerous. (lines 1-6; 11-17; 55-62; 95-103; 112-117; 180-191).
8. What is Vonnegut saying about improving society by making everyone average?
He is saying that by making everyone average is no improvement; artists are compromised (lines 26-30, 100-101, 168); the handicaps harm people (lines 55-57); and humans are not allowed to reach their full potential (lines 145-147).
9. Would society have been better off with Harrison in charge?
Yes. Harrison would remove peoples' handicaps and allow diversity to flourish.
10. Think about the criticisms of society made in "Harrison Bergeron." What aspects of today's society seem open to Vonnegut's criticisms?
Rewarding effort rather than results; everybody having equal play time on sports teams regardless of whether they are good or not.
11. One critic has argued that Vonnegut portrays television as "a kind of desensitizing, numbing, and clearly thought-stifling, rather than thought-provoking, medium" that is partly responsible for the state of society. Do you agree or disagree? Support your decision.
Agree: The television shows mediocre or poor performances; it is a tool of the government.
Disagree: The television is the least of the people's problems. The Constitutional Amendments and the vigilant agents are the real cause of the society depicted.
