Religion and the Book Trade Caroline Archer, Lisa Peters, 2015-09-18 This volume brings together a selection of the papers presented at the Print Networks conference at the National Library of Wales Aberystwyth in July 2011 The conference theme Religion and the book trade was chosen to mark the four hundredth anniversary of the publication of the King James Bible Numerous events throughout the United Kingdom and the English speaking world took place to commemorate this historic event the Print Networks conference being one of many Religious books be they tracts sermons homilies hymn books or Bibles were primarily used by all denominations to spread their version of Christianity to attract people to their cause and to retain the loyalty of supporters But these publications are also credited with the survival of indigenous languages and naturally the printers and distributors of these religious works were crucial to the process of spreading both religion and literacy among the population The contributions to this book cover a wide gamut of religion and the book trade from the sixteenth to the twentieth centuries Most of the chapters are concerned with the European book trade and concentrate on Christian religions and cover both Catholic and

Protestant particularly Nonconformist Dissenter experiences Most of the chapters relate to the British and Irish book trade but there are also contributions discussing Italy and the Netherlands There are chapters relating to the printers and publishers of religious works authorship the issue and production of religious periodicals the promoters of religious libraries and clandestine elements of the trade This volume emphasises the pivotal role played by those in the book trade printers publishers or booksellers in the distribution of religious works and demonstrates that spreading the ideas of their authors creators or translators would have been far more difficult without their involvement This book will be of interest to academics independent scholars heritage professionals and research students in the fields of book trade history book arts bibliography bookbinding printing and typographic history publishing social and industrial history and religious history
