Debates in Primary Education Virginia Bower,2020-10-19 This powerful text encourages both pre service and established teachers as well as teacher educators to engage with contemporary debates in primary education Promoting a critical approach the chapters explore a wide range of key themes including the importance of values in primary education and the imperative for a curriculum which embraces the whole range of available subjects At the same time the chapters are underpinned by a belief that children should be at the heart of all the decisions we make and that primary education should inspire a love of learning for life The book aims to support practitioners to make informed judgements and feel confident to argue their point of view with deeper theoretical knowledge and understanding thus increasing teacher agency and confidence in responding to complex educational and social dilemmas such as literacy levels and rising mental health concerns Chapters encompass both the macro aspects of primary education and more specialised debates on key topics such as reading mathematics languages early years education and the use of technology With annotated further reading and reflective questions this key text is essential reading for all those wanting to develop a better understanding of the issues that shape their practice including student teachers at both undergraduate and postgraduate level practising teachers engaged in continuing professional development and teacher educators

Assembling Bus Rapid Transit in the Global South Malve Jacobsen,2020-12-13 This book explores the mobile ethnography of Dar es Salaam where consultants and politicians have planned and implemented a bus rapid transit BRT system for two decades It analyses the dual processes of assembling BRT in the Tanzanian metropolis and establishing BRT as a policy model of and for the Global South The book elucidates how policy models are constructed and circulated around the globe and depicts the processes by which they are translated between and materialise within specific contexts It presents the case of BRT to demonstrate how technocrats shape these processes through persuasive work aimed at disseminating and stabilising this transport model and how local actors influence its adaptation in Dar es Salaam The book adopts a double mobility approach to show how this ethnography follows travelling consultants circulating policies and moving buses to explore the fluidity of the BRT model Linking key debates in policy mobility studies and Science and Technology Studies enriched with postcolonial perspectives and geographies of transport and infrastructure it offers new insights into the technopolitics of planning and implementing infrastructure systems This book will appeal to academics and students of human geography transport studies science and technology studies and African and development studies interested in the technopolitics of transport planning

Cash Not Care Mo Stewart,2016-09-14 Mo Stewart is a former healthcare professional a disabled female veteran and an independent researcher This book is the culmination of six years of self funded research and the evidence exposes the influence of corporate America since 1992 with the future welfare reforms of the UK The impact of the enforced austerity measures of the UK government is identified as they negatively affect the welfare and the survival of the chronically sick and disabled population in receipt of welfare benefits when unfit to work The research has informed welfare reform debates in the House of Lords and the House of Commons since 2011 and contributed to the evidence used by the United Nations to investigate the UK government for breaches of the Human Rights of sick and disabled people Endorsed by the disabled community and by academics the research has identified the adoption of lethal social policies copied from American social security policies and linked to the death of thousands of the most vulnerable of all as the UK welfare state is systematically demolished as all planned over thirty years ago by a previous Conservative government
