Communicating Science and Engineering Data in the Information Age National Research Council, Division on Engineering and Physical Sciences, Computer Science and Telecommunications Board, Division of Behavioral and Social Sciences and Education, Committee on National Statistics, Panel on Communicating National Science Foundation Science and Engineering Information to Data Users, 2012-03-07 The National Center for Science and Engineering Statistics NCSES of the National Science Foundation NSF communicates its science and engineering S E information to data users in a very fluid environment that is undergoing modernization at a pace at which data producer dissemination practices protocols and technologies on one hand and user demands and capabilities on the other are changing faster than the agency has been able to accommodate NCSES asked the Committee on National Statistics and the Computer Science and Telecommunications Board of the National Research Council to form a panel to review the NCSES communication and dissemination program that is concerned with the collection and distribution of information on science and engineering and to recommend future directions for the program Communicating Science and Engineering Data in the Information Age includes recommendations to improve NCSES s dissemination program and improve data user engagement This report includes recommendations such as NCSES s transition to a dissemination framework that emphasizes database management rather than data presentation and that NCSES analyze the results of its initial online consumer survey and refine it over time The implementation of the report s recommendations should be undertaken within an overall framework that accords priority to the basic quality of the data and the fundamentals of dissemination then to significant enhancements that are achievable in the short term while laying the groundwork for other long term improvements

Spies and Shuttles James E. David, 2015-01-27 Revealing the connections between NASA and the United States defense community In this real life spy saga James E David reveals the extensive and largely hidden interactions between NASA and U S defense and intelligence departments The story begins with the establishment of NASA in 1958 and follows the agency through its growth not only in scope but also in complexity In Spies and Shuttles David digs through newly declassified documents to ultimately reveal how NASA became a strange bedfellow to the Department of Defense DoD and the Central Intelligence Agency CIA He tracks NASA s early cooperation supplying cover stories for covert missions analyzing the Soviet space program providing weather and other scientific data from its satellites and monitoring missile tests that eventually devolved into NASA s reliance on DoD for political and financial support for the Shuttle David also examines the restrictions imposed on such activities as photographing the Earth from space and the intrusive review mechanisms to ensure compliance The ties between NASA and the intelligence community have historically remained unexplored and David s riveting book is the first to investigate the twists and turns of this labyrinthine relationship

Spacecraft Dynamics and Control Enrico Canuto, Carlo Novara, Donato Carlucci, Carlos Perez-Montenegro, Luca Massotti, 2018-03-08 Spacecraft Dynamics and Control The Embedded Model Control Approach provides a uniform and systematic way of approaching space engineering control problems from the standpoint of model based control using state space equations as the key paradigm for simulation design and implementation The book introduces the Embedded Model Control methodology for the design and implementation of attitude and orbit control systems The logic architecture is organized around the embedded model of the spacecraft and its surrounding environment The model is compelled to include disturbance dynamics as a repository of the uncertainty that the control law must reject to meet attitude and orbit requirements within the uncertainty class The source of the real time uncertainty estimation prediction is the model error signal as it encodes the residual discrepancies between spacecraft measurements and model output The embedded model and the uncertainty estimation feedback noise estimator in the book constitute the state predictor feeding the control law Asymptotic pole placement exploiting the asymptotes of closed loop transfer functions is the way to design and tune feedback loops around the embedded model state predictor control law reference generator The design versus the uncertainty class is driven by analytic stability and performance inequalities The method is applied to several attitude and orbit control problems The book begins with an extensive introduction to attitude geometry and algebra and ends with the core themes state space dynamics and Embedded Model Control Fundamentals of orbit attitude and environment dynamics are treated giving emphasis to state space formulation disturbance dynamics state feedback and prediction closed loop stability Sensors and actuators are treated giving emphasis to their dynamics and modelling of measurement errors Numerical tables are included and their data employed for numerical simulations Orbit and attitude control problems of the European GOCE mission are the inspiration of numerical exercises and simulations The suite of the attitude control modes of a GOCE like mission is designed and simulated around the so called mission state predictor Solved and unsolved exercises are included within the text and not separated at the end of chapters for better understanding training and application Simulated results and their graphical plots are developed through MATLAB Simulink code
