Are You Introverted or Extraverted?

From the interaction I had with my fellow employees, the co-workers and the management team, I can consider myself as an extrovert. I am an outgoing and a social confidence person. In most of the work processes, I had the opportunity to confidently interact with every individual. Additionally, as the manager of Aetna medical facility, I had the opportunity to interact with the visitors and the personnel from other organizations. In so doing, I continuously enhanced by interaction skills with different people both those with strong, moderate and weak personalities. In every management position, communication and interaction skills are key. When I first entered the organization, I was introverted as I had to cope up with the procedures of doing work and to familiarize myself with the people and the entire work environment. By then, I had no any responsibility, I was a team player who under the command of the team manager. However, with a long stay in the organization, I learned and grasp different communication skills that improved my ability to interact even with the strangers. As for now, I believe that I am an extrovert, I have strong communication skills, I am socially vibrant and I don't feel isolated even in the strange environment with strange people. Today, I have the tendency of making friends and interacting even with strangers in different social setups.
