

to find a way to deploy other people's money to finance our own interests. Some of my European counterparts called me "the smiling hegemon." And it's true that I tried to maximize U.S. influence. I remember asking Truman and another Fed economist, Lew Alexander, if we could somehow structure the fund to give the United States the power to force action as well as veto action. They laughed and said they didn't know any math that would give us all the power for just 25 percent of the funding. We settled for a veto. And our counterparts eventually realized the fund made sense for everyone.
