

INSTRUCTIONS TO CONTRIBUTORS

Journal of Scientific & Industrial Research (JSIR)

The Journal was started in 1982 and published monthly in English language by CSIR-National Institute of Science Communication and Information Resources (NISCAIR). It serves as an information link between science-technology and the society. It caters to entrepreneurs, technologists, engineers, technocrats and scientists on one hand and planners, administrators and managers on the other.

Original research articles of interest to industry, reviews on frontiers of science and technology, articles on management and policies relating to science, technology and industrial applications are invited for publication. Reviews on current topics are encouraged. No case studies will be entertained. Editor decision will be final for considering MSS and publishing the research paper. The detailed coverage is given below:

Manuscript Preparation

General: Manuscripts should be in MS Word format in single space (11 pt, Times New Roman font) with page limit of 11–15. All pages should be numbered consecutively. Use SI units throughout, and where other units are used for some reason, give equivalent SI units in parenthesis. Symbols should conform to standard CSIR-NISCAIR guidelines (check previous JSIR issues online).

Title: It should be short & informative formatted in 'Sentence case'. Latin names are to be given in italics. (15 pt)

Short Running Title: Not more than 50 characters. ALL IN CAPITALS (9 pt)

Author(s): Names of authors to be typed in first letters capital (Capitalize each word), each name separated by commas and "&" before the last author. The names of all the authors should consist of first name, middle name and last name. Omit titles, such as Dr, Mr, Prof, Colonel, etc. (10 pt)

Affiliation of Author(s): Name(s) and address(es) of the institution(s) where the work was carried out including pin code (space after 3 digit) should be given. Present address of author(s), if different, should also be given. Corresponding author's name should bear asterisk(*) mark with e-mail address as foot note. (9 pt)

Main Headings: Each manuscript should be divided into the following main headings: Abstract, Introduction, Materials and methods, Result and Discussion, Conclusions, Acknowledgement and References. For review papers the headings are Abstract, Introduction, subject matter headings, conclusion, acknowledgement and references. The main headings should be typed in 11 pt bold font, as Sentence case, on the left hand side of the page. Similarly, the next level headings could be presented as follows preferably without using the decimal classification number:

Sub-Headings: Sentence case, 9 pt bold

Sub-Sub Headings: Sentence case, 9 pt Bold-Italic

Sub-Sub-Sub Headings: Sentence case, 9 pt Italics

Abstract: Abstract should be self-contained. For full papers it should not exceed 200-250 words and for short communications, about 100-150 words. Should contain scope, methodology employed, and key findings and conclusions in a way that is useful for indexing and abstracting service providers and gives a bird's eye view to a reader. Use of tabular material, symbols, equations, relations, references and abbreviations should be avoided. In case the citation of

A Guide to Writing Sociology Papers Roseann Giarrusso, University of California, Los Angeles. Sociology Writing Group, 2001-02-15 Ideal for instructors and students in a wide range of sociological courses this guide makes the case that thinking and writing are integrally related and that writing therefore exercises the sociological imagination Written in a clear and conversational style A Guide to Writing Sociology Papers examines a wide range of writing assignments for sociology courses at all levels of the curriculum Employing a variety of writing samples as a means to illustrate effective writing this brief and inexpensive text teaches students how to deftly research and write about sociology Seeing, second edition John P. Frisby, James V. Stone, 2010-04-02 An accessible yet rigorous and generously illustrated exploration of the computational approach to the study of biological vision Seeing has puzzled scientists and philosophers for centuries and it continues to do so This new edition of a classic text offers an accessible but rigorous introduction to the computational approach to understanding biological visual systems The authors of Seeing taking as their premise David Marr's statement that to understand vision by studying only neurons is like trying to understand bird flight by studying only feathers make use of Marr's three different levels of analysis in the study of vision the computational level the algorithmic level and the hardware implementation level Each chapter applies this approach to a different topic in vision by examining the problems the visual system encounters in interpreting retinal images and the constraints available to solve these problems the algorithms that can realize the solution and the implementation of these algorithms in neurons Seeing has been thoroughly updated for this edition and expanded to more than three times its original length It is designed to lead the reader through the problems of vision from the common but mistaken idea that seeing consists just of making pictures in the brain to the minutiae of how neurons collectively encode the visual features that underpin seeing Although it assumes no prior knowledge of the field some chapters present advanced material This makes it the only textbook suitable for both undergraduate and graduate students that takes a consistently computational perspective offering a firm conceptual basis for tackling the vast literature on vision It covers a wide range of topics including aftereffects the retina receptive fields object recognition brain maps Bayesian perception motion color and stereopsis MatLab code is available on the book's website which includes a simple demonstration of image convolution Paper Makers Monthly Journal, 1913 The Legal Academic's Handbook Chris Ashford, Jessica Guth, 2020-10-16 How do you become a legal academic What skills and experience are necessary to progress your career In which ways could you enrich your job With contributions from more than 60 established academics this handbook offers essential guidance on starting pursuing managing and advancing a career in legal academia Whether you are looking for ways to overcome challenges or to seek out new opportunities this book provides practical advice through relevant research personal experience and anecdotal evidence Four fictional academics who want to pursue different career paths in different academic institutions are introduced at the start of the book Each chapter then delves into a specific topic from the perspective of one of these academics including making the transition from legal practice investigating gender issues gaining recognition for teaching building a research profile and organising a specialist conference
