How Many Interviews Does Autozone Do:

Speaking Truths Valerie Chepp,2022-02-11 The twenty first century is already riddled with protests demanding social justice and in every instance young people are leading the charge But in addition to protesters who take to the streets with handmade placards are young adults who engage in less obvious change making tactics In Speaking Truths sociologist Valerie Chepp goes behind the scenes to uncover how spoken word poetry and young people s participation in it contributes to a broader understanding of contemporary social justice activism including this generation s attention to the political importance of identity well being and love Drawing upon detailed observations and in depth interviews Chepp tells the story of a diverse group of young adults from Washington D C who use spoken word to create a more just and equitable world Outlining the contours of this approach she interrogates spoken word activism s emphasis on personal storytelling and truth the strategic uses of aesthetics and emotions to politically engage across difference and the significance of healing in sustainable movements for change Weaving together their poetry and personally told stories Chepp shows how poets tap into the beautiful emotional personal and therapeutic features of spoken word to empathically connect with others advance intersectional and systemic analyses of inequality and make social justice messages relatable across a diverse public By creating allies and forging connections based on friendship professional commitments lived experiences emotions artistic kinship and political views this activist approach is highly integrated into the everyday lives of its practitioners online and face to face Chepp argues that spoken word activism is a product of and a call to action against the neoliberal era in which poets have come of age characterized by widening structural inequalities and increasing economic and social vulnerability She illustrates how this deeply personal and intimate activist approach borrows from builds upon and diverges from previous social movement paradigms Spotlighting the complexity and mutual influence of modern day activism and the world in which it unfolds Speaking Truths contributes to our understanding of contemporary social change making and how neoliberalism has shaped this political generation s experiences with social injustice

Duped Saul Kassin,2022-06-15 Why do people confess to crimes they did not commit And surely those cases must be rare In fact it happens all the time in police stations workplaces public schools and the military Psychologist Saul Kassin the world s leading expert on false confessions explains how interrogators trick innocent people into confessing and then how the criminal justice system deludes us into believing these confessions Duped reveals how innocent men women and children intensely stressed and befuddled by lawful weapons of psychological interrogation are induced into confession no matter how horrific the crime By featuring riveting case studies highly original research work by the Innocence Project and quotes from real life exonerees Kassin tells the story of how false confessions happen and how they corrupt forensics witnesses and other evidence force guilty pleas and follow defendants for their entire lives even after they are exonerated by DNA Starting in the 1980 s Dr Kassin pioneered the scientific study of interrogations and confessions Since then he has been on the forefront of research and advocacy for those wrongfully convicted by police induced false confessions Examining famous cases like the Central Park jogger case and Amanda Knox case as well as stories of ordinary innocent people trapped into confession Dr Kassin exposes just how widespread this problem is Concluding with actionable solutions and proposals for legislative reform Duped shows why the stigma of confession persists and how we can reform the criminal justice system to make it stop CIO ,2007-10-01 Business Perspectives ,1996 Fortune Henry Robinson Luce,2005-06 USA Today Index ,1991 Quirk's Marketing Research Review ,1993 Hispanic Business ,1997 The Official Index to the Financial Times ,1996 The Black Collegian ,1993
