Loose Canons English Edition:

Loose Canons Henry Louis Gates Jr., 1993-05-20 Multiculturalism It has been the subject of cover stories in Time and Newsweek as well as numerous articles in newspapers and magazines around America It has sparked heated jeremiads by George Will Dinesh D Sousa and Roger Kimball It moved William F Buckley to rail against Stanley Fish and Catherine Stimpson on Firing Line It is arguably the most hotly debated topic in America today and justly so For whether one speaks of tensions between Hasidim and African Americans in Crown Heights or violent mass protests against Moscow in ethnic republics such as Armenia or outright war between Serbs and Bosnians in the former Yugoslavia it is clear that the clash of cultures is a worldwide problem deeply felt passionately expressed always on the verge of violent explosion Problems of this magnitude inevitably frame the discussion of multiculturalism and cultural diversity in the American classroom as well In Loose Canons one of America s leading literary and cultural critics Henry Louis Gates Jr offers a broad illuminating look at this highly contentious issue Gates agrees that our world is deeply divided by nationalism racism and sexism and argues that the only way to transcend these divisions to forge a civic culture that respects both differences and similarities is through education that respects both the diversity and commonalities of human culture His is a plea for cultural and intercultural understanding You can t understand the world he observes if you exclude 90 percent of the world s cultural heritage We feel his ideas most strongly voiced in the concluding essay in the volume Trading on the Margin Avoiding the stridency of both the Right and the Left Gates concludes that the society we have made simply won t survive without the values of tolerance and cultural tolerance comes to nothing without cultural understanding Henry Louis Gates is one of the most visible and outspoken figures on the academic scene the subject of a cover story in The New York Times Sunday Magazine and a major profile in The Boston Globe and a much sought after commentator And as one of America s foremost advocates of African American Studies he is head of the department at Harvard he has reflected upon the varied meanings of multiculturalism throughout his professional career long before it became a national controversy What we find in these pages then is the fruit of years of reflection on culture racism and the American identity and a deep commitment to broadening the literary and cultural horizons of all Americans

Translation and the Classic Paul F. Bandia, James Hadley, Siobhán McElduff, 2024-02-08 Through a range of accessible and innovative chapters dealing with a spectrum of genres authors and periods this volume seeks to examine the complex relationship between translation and the classic and how translation makes and remakes and sometimes invents classic works for new audiences across space and time Translation and the Classic is the first volume in a two volume series examining how classic works fare in translation how translation is different when it engages with classic texts and how classic texts can be shaped understood in new ways or even created through the process of translation Although other collections have covered some of this territory they have done so in partial ways or with a focus on Greek Roman and Arabic texts or translations This collection alone takes the reader from 1000 BCE up to the digital age in a sequence of chapters that encompass areas including philosophy children's literature and pseudotranslation It asks us to consider translation not just as a mechanism of distribution but as one of the primary ways that the classic is created and understood by multiple audiences This book is essential reading for those taking Translation Studies courses at the senior undergraduate and postgraduate level as well as courses outside Translation Studies such as Comparative Literature and Literary Studies

God, the Gift, and Postmodernism John D. Caputo, Michael J. Scanlon, 1999-12-22 Pushing past the constraints of postmodernism which cast reason and religion in opposition God the Gift and Postmodernism seizes the opportunity to question the authority of the modern and open the limits of possible experience including the call to religious experience as a new millennium approaches Jacques Derrida the father of deconstruction engages with Jean Luc Marion and other religious philosophers to entertain questions about intention givenness and possibility which reveal the extent to which deconstruction is structured like religion New interpretations of Kant Heidegger Husserl and Derrida emerge from essays and discussions with distinguished philosophers and theologians from the United States and Europe The result is that God the Gift and Postmodernism elaborates a radical phenomenology that stretches the limits of its possibility and explores areas where philosophy and religion have become increasingly and surprisingly convergent Contributors include John D Caputo John Dominic Crossan Jacques Derrida Robert Dodaro Richard Kearney Jean Luc Marion Frangoise Meltzer Michael J Scanlon Mark C Taylor David Tracy Merold Westphal and Edith Wyschogrod
