Lovedale Application Forms 2016:

The Times Do Not Permit Christine Lucia, 2024-10-01 This biography of Michael Mosoeu Moerane 1904 1980 surveys the unique life times and music of the first classically educated African composer in southern Africa Publishing from the South Sarah Nuttall, Isabel Hofmeyr, 2024-11 In 2022 Wits University Press marked its centenary making it the oldest most established university press in sub Saharan Africa While in part modelled on scholarly publishers from the global North it has had to contend with the constraints of working under global South conditions marginalisation within the university budgetary limitations small local markets unequal access to international sales channels and the privileging of English language publishing over indigenous languages This volume explores what the Press has achieved and what its modes of reinvention might look like In widening and deepening our understanding of the Press as an example of a global South scholarly publisher this volume asks how publishing can contribute to a broader understanding of Southern knowledge production Featuring contributions from scholars publishers and authors this multi voiced volume showcases the history of the Press s publishing activities over 100 years from documenting its evolution through book covers and giving credence to some of the leading black intellectuals and writers of the early 20th century and the success of those works in spite of their authors racial marginalisation to the role of women both in publishing and in the spaces afforded to women s writing on the Press s list The collection concludes with essays by contemporary authors who detail not only their experiences of working with Southern publishers but also the politics and influences governing their decisions to choose the Press over a Northern publisher Publishing from the South shows the strategies deployed by the Press to professionalise Southern knowledge making and in the process demonstrating how university presses in the global South support the scholarly missions of their universities for both local and global audiences Indaba! Paula D. Nesbitt, 2017-02-01 Indaba depicts the adventures and challenges of participants who explored mutual listening and understanding across the worldwide Anglican Communion through the innovative Continuing Indaba project Indaba is an African Zulu cultural process for engaging differences of view on a shared concern Introduced to the Anglican Communion for the 2008 Lambeth Conference it has been adapted and used as a transformative resource for church interfaith and civic organizations to use alongside other processes of relationship building conflict transformation reconciliation decision making and governance As a groundbreaking book Indaba shares findings from a cross cultural research team who traveled with the participants documenting their observations through interviews and survey research The wisdom and practices of this indigenous cultural tradition offer fresh insights on how to maintain healthy and vital communities that respect differences of culture belief and viewpoint in moving forward together The use of indaba in contemporary global religious and civic life offers a path forward for genuine postcolonial relationships partnerships and mission grounded in deeper understanding and mutual respect Shaping Natural History and Settler Society Tanja Hammel, 2019-08-23 This book explores the life and work of Mary Elizabeth Barber a British born settler scientist who lived in the Cape during the nineteenth century It provides a lens into a range of subjects within the history of knowledge and science gender and social history postcolonial critical heritage and archival studies The book examines the international importance of the life and works of a marginalized scientist the instrumentalisation of science to settlers political concerns and reveals the pivotal but largely silenced contribution of indigenous African experts Including a variety of material visual and textual sources this study explores how these artefacts are archived and displayed in museums and critically analyses their content and silences The book traces Barber s legacy across three continents in collections and archives offering insights into the politics of memory and history making At the same time it forges a nuanced argument incorporating study of the North and South the history of science and social history and the past and the present

Farmer's Weekly ,1923 Winnie and Nelson Jonny Steinberg,2023-05-02 A NATIONAL BOOK CRITICS CIRCLE AWARD WINNER THE SUNDAY TIMES LITERARY AWARD WINNER AN LA TIMES BOOK PRIZE FINALIST A WASHINGTON POST AND NEW YORKER BEST BOOK OF THE YEAR A deeply researched shattering new account of Nelson Mandela s relationship with Winnie Madikizela Mandela that does justice both to the couple s political heroism and to the betrayals and the secrets that hounded their union The New Yorker Drawing on never before seen material Steinberg one of South Africa s foremost nonfiction writers reveals the fractures and stubborn bonds at the heart of a volatile and groundbreaking union a very modern political marriage that played out on the world stage Powerful intimate The Washington Post One of the most celebrated political leaders of a century Nelson Mandela has been written about by many biographers and historians But in one crucial area his life remains largely untold his marriage to Winnie Madikizela Mandela During his years in prison Nelson grew ever more in love with an idealized version of his wife courting her in his letters as if they were young lovers frozen in time But Winnie every bit his political equal found herself increasingly estranged from her jailed husband s politics Behind his back she was trying to orchestrate an armed seizure of power a path he feared would lead to an endless civil war Jonny Steinberg tells the tale of this unique marriage its longings its obsessions its deceits making South African history a page turning political biography Winnie and Nelson is a modern epic in which trauma doesn t affect just the couple at its center but an entire nation It is also a Shakespearean drama in which bonds of love and commitment mingle with timeless questions of revolution such as whether to seek retribution or a negotiated peace Steinberg reveals with power and tender emotional insight how far these forever entwined leaders would go for each other and where they drew the line For in the end both knew theirs was not simply a marriage but a contest to decide how apartheid should be fought
