Hot, Sour, Salty, Sweet: Essays and Interviews Adrienne Su,2024-08-06 Seasoned with a dash of Su s meticulously crafted poetry and even a recipe this collection celebrates words culture food and the human act of making that binds them all together A literary gourmand s delight Kirkus Reviews Su s soulful reflections call attention to the complex connections between place cuisine literature and taste and revealing interviews with Su open a window onto her creative process This provides much to savor Publishers Weekly In this enchanting collection of essays and interviews poet Adrienne Su reflects on her journey as a creative writer and avid home cook beginning at a neighbor s dinner table in 1980s Atlanta lingering over poems poets and connections between food and literature and ending in her 2023 kitchen in central Pennsylvania In Hot Sour Salty Sweet Adrienne Su contemplates her own use of food as a recurring metaphor influential teachers and peers the push and pull between cooking and writing changing expectations around English usage and craft questions such as Why does some subject matter refuse to cooperate in the creative process even when it appears close to home How does one write a good poem about being happy Why write in rhyme when it s time consuming and mostly out of style What is a poem s responsibility to the literal truth Su s essays are driven by the tensions between worlds that overlap and collide social conventions of the northern and southern United States notions of what s American and what s Asian American the demands of the page and the demands of the home the solitariness of writing and the meaningful connection a poem can create between writer and reader In interviews often with fellow poets she discusses a range of topics from her early days in the Nuyorican poetry slam scene to the solace of poetry and cooking during Covid 19 lockdown While Su s previous books are all collections of poetry she has been publishing individual essays for many years Hot Sour Salty Sweet gathers the best of them into one volume for the first time

Selling Sex on Screen Karen A. Ritzenhoff,Catriona McAvoy,2015-07-16 Whether in mainstream or independent films depictions of female prostitution and promiscuity are complicated by their intersection with male fantasies In such films issues of exploitation fidelity and profitability are often introduced into the narrative where sex and power become commodities traded between men and women In Selling Sex on Screen From Weimar Cinema to Zombie Porn Karen A Ritzenhoff and Catriona McAvoy have assembled essays that explore the representation of women and sexual transactions in film and television Included in these discussions are the films Breakfast at Tiffany s Eyes Wide Shut L A Confidential Pandora s Box and Shame and such programs as Buffy the Vampire Slayer and Gigolos By exploring the themes of class differences and female economic independence the chapters go beyond textual analysis and consider politics censorship social trends laws race and technology as well as sexual and gender stereotypes By exploring this complex subject Selling Sex on Screen offers a spectrum of representations of desire and sexuality through the moving image This volume will be of interest not only to students and scholars of film but also researchers in gender studies women s studies criminology
