  An Introduction to Narratology , The Narrator Sylvie Patron,2023 The narrator the answer to the question who speaks in the text is a commonly used notion in teaching literature and in literary criticism even though it is the object of an ongoing debate in narrative theory Do all fictional narratives have a narrator or only some of them Can narratives thus be narratorless This question divides communicational theories based on the communication between real or fictional narrator and narratee and noncommunicational or poetic theories which aim to rehabilitate the function of the author as the creator of the fictional narrative Clarifying the notion of the narrator requires a historical and epistemological approach focused on the opposition between communicational theories of narrative in general and noncommunicational or poetic theories of the fictional narrative in particular The Narrator offers an original and critical synthesis of the problem of the narrator in the work of narratologists and other theoreticians of narrative communication from the French Czech German and American traditions and in representations of the noncommunicational theories of fictional narrative Sylvie Patron provides linguistic and pragmatic tools for interrogating the concept of the narrator based on the idea that fictional narrative has the power to signal by specific linguistic marks that the reader must construct a narrator when these marks are missing the reader is able to perceive other forms and other narrative effects specially sought after by certain authors   Unnatural Narratives - Unnatural Narratology Jan Alber,Rüdiger Heinze,2011-09-29 In recent years the study of unnatural narratives has become an exciting new but still disparate research program in narrative theory For the first time this collection of essays presents and discusses the new analytical tools that have so far been developed on the basis of unnatural novels short stories and plays and extends these findings through analyses of testimonies comics graphic novels films and oral narratives Many narratives do not only mimetically reproduce the world as we know it but confront us with strange narrative worlds which rely on principles that have very little to do with the actual world around us The essays in this collection develop new narratological tools and modeling systems which are designed to capture the strangeness and extravagance of such anti realist narratives Taken together the essays offer a systematic investigation of anti mimetic techniques and strategies that relate to different narrative parameters different media and different periods within literary history   Stories in Letters - Letters in Stories Rebekka Schuh,2021-10-04 This book deals with letters in Anglophone Canadian short stories of the late twentieth and the early twenty first century in the context of liminality It argues that in the course of the epistolary renaissance the letter which has often been deemed to be obsolete in literature has not only enjoyed an upsurge in novels but also migrated to the short story thus constituting the genre of the epistolary short story   English Prose And Computer Writing Skills (According to Minimum Uniform Syllabus Prescribed by National Education Policy) R. Dahiya,1992   Child's Perspective in Hemingway's My Old Man Karin Ostertag,2003-02-27 Seminar paper from the year 2000 in the subject American Studies Literature grade 1 3 A Humboldt University of Berlin Institute for Anglistics American Studies course HS Childish 1st person perspective artificial naivete language English abstract The first aspect is stressed especially by Jackson J Benson when he compares My Old Man and Anderson s I Want To Know Why similar in view subject plot tone and diction Both stories are about boys in a race track setting Both boys admire an older man are influenced by him and then find their admiration betrayed Both boys are left puzzled and hurt by the experience Each story is told in the first person by the boy who is characterized by slightly broken grammar and the use of adolescent slang gee gosh and swell Benson 273 Christian Messinger argues that Anderson sensed both the longing for success that gripped track people and the disorder that accompanied overidentification with horses and racing Christian K Messinger 278 The following however will leave aside a possible influence by Anderson[1] but rather concentrates on the employed narrating device of a child s raconteur Although it suggests itself to compare the two narration modes I am afraid I have to narrow my focus for the following examination As Carl Ficken points out At the beginning of his writing career in the 1920 s Hemingway was working at the problem of point of view In his first publication Three Stories and Ten Poems 1923 he told two of the stories through an omniscient third person narrator and the other in the first person My Old Man in fact remains one of the classical examples of the unreliable first person narrator Carl Ficken 94 The following essay will thus discuss the second field of critical interest concerning My Old Man the narrative revelation or more specific Hemingway s technique of establishing a child s perspective Based on Franz K Stanzel s three categories person perspective and modus I will outline the typical features of the autobiographical I narrator as Stanzel states them as relevant for interpretation As I have pointed out the criteria that compose the I narrating situation I will on these grounds discuss further how a child s perspective as of the I narrator Joe is established in My Old Man and what function it serves in the story 1 Hemingway vehemently denied the claimed influence of his elder patron that overshadowed his artist ego With the bitter satire Torrents of Spring 1927 he publicly recoiled from Anderson and broke with him as a friend   Short Stories for College Classes Blanche Colton Williams,1929   High School English Abraham Royer Brubacher,Dorothy Ermina Snyder,1912   English Abram Royer Brubacher,1914   English, Oral and Written Abram Royer Brubacher,Dorothy Ermina Snyder,1914   Grammatical Person in Text and Narrative Tristan Calhoun Thomte,2009   Papers and Proceedings American Library Association.
