

10 SIGNS SOMEONE IS LYING TO YOU

They change their head position quickly.

If you see someone suddenly jerk their head when you ask them a direct question, they may be lying to you about something.

Their breathing changes.

When someone is nervous and lying to you, they may begin to breathe more heavily. Their shoulders rise and their voice gets shallow.

They stand very still.

Relaxed, unconscious movements come naturally in normal conversation, so a rigid stance should be a major red flag.

They repeat words or phrases.

This happens because they're trying to convince you, and themselves, of something. Repetition is also a way to buy time as they gather their thoughts.

They touch or cover their mouth.

People unconsciously cover their mouths when they want to avoid answering a question — both literally and figuratively halting conversation.

They instinctively cover vulnerable body parts.

You've likely hit a nerve if someone's hand moves to cover parts of their throat, chest, neck, head, or abdomen.

They tend to point a lot.

Liars become defensive when they think you discovered their lie, which may result in a lot of pointing.

They provide too much information.

An excess of details is often a sign of lying. Liars hope that talking a lot will be perceived as openness and truthfulness.

It becomes difficult for them to speak.

Our mouths get dry when we're stressed and lying. Other signs to watch for include sudden lip biting or pursed lips.

They stare at you without blinking much.

When people lie, it's common for them to break eye contact, but the liar could go the extra mile to maintain eye contact in an attempt to control and manipulate you.
