

Lesson 5 – Henny Penny

Learning Aim:

- Students will make relevant suggestions and recall events from stories to re-enact storylines.

Introduction to Topic:

- Warm-up game: 8 Count Shake! See attached Resource 1.
- Read the story of Henny Penny once through. The animal names sound silly. Ask students if anyone can say what is special about each of them? They rhyme.
- Ask students to think of a rhyming word that goes with the name of each person in the class. Some students will hear the rhymes easily. Other students will have some difficulty hearing what words go together. You may want to practice with a few simple names first. Say the name with and without a rhyming word and see if the students can hear which ones rhyme. For example: Which two rhyme? Billy-Chilly or Billy-frog. Jason-Chasin' or Jason Jumps. The rhymes may have to be silly "words" that aren't actual words. You may even have to use the child's last name. Here are some examples: Michael Motorcycle, Sue Blue, Amy Blamey, Jan Ran, Eric Hysterical, Justin Bustin', Dylan Chillin', Ava Brava, Emma Gemma, Joshua Goshua.
- There are extra activities at the end of this plan for 2 hour classes. See Supplementary Resource – Lesson 5 – Henny Penny activities for the flashcards.

Main Activity: Mime and Movement

- Resource 2 – Animal actions song. See if students can come up with their own actions/sounds too. If you have a big class, put students in groups so there are a few of each animal and compete with sounds.
- You can make masks or character hats (Supplementary Resources – Lesson 5) before singing the song or make the puppets (Resource 3) on lolly sticks.

Key Vocabulary:

- Hen, cockerel/rooster, duck, goose, turkey, fox, king

Additional Activities:

- See resource book for more warm up games.

Reflection/Story:

- Before reading the story again (if you have time), see if students can remember the sequence of characters, their names, what animals they are, what happens in the story etc.
- Act out the story – remember that each character can have 2 or 3 students playing that part.

Closing:

- Carpet time: ask children what they have learnt today.
- Sing the song
